MUST FILE THE NOTICE BY NEXT WEDNESDAY

mittie, will close at noon Wednesday, and those who expect to get their names on the tickets will have to bear this in mind.

Judge Edgar E. Montague, who is a candidate for commonwealth's attorney, filed his notice with Secretary Groom yesterday and it is likely that many of the aspirants for the other offices will comply with the rules by tomorrow night.

The officers to be nominated in this primary are treasurer, sheriff, commonwealth's attorney, constable, magistrates, members of the board of supervisors and members of the County Democratic Committee.

There are three justices of the peace to be elected in each of the districts.

The county committee will meet Wednesday night to complete the plans for the primary and to arrange the ticket, as well as elect the judges and clerks for the primary.

So far the only fight of any consequence is that for commonwealth's attorney. Mr. Burdette A. Lewis, the incumbent, is being opposed by Judge Montague, and a heated contest is expected, although the friends of each aspirant declare their confidence for success for the man they favor. County Treasurer David Johnson will not have any opposition in the primary, but he will be opposed in the general election by Capt. Jesse S. Jones, who held the office of treasurer for more than seventeen years. So far Sheriff Curtis has no announced opposition.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY VETERANS COMING HERE

Delegation of Twenty-five Expected to Arrive in Hampton Tuesday Enroute to Richmond.

A delegation of twenty-five Confederate veterans will reach Hampton Tuesday evening on the State oyster steamer Rappahannock, Captain Hudgins. The veterans will leave on Wednesday morning for Richmond, where they will attend the United Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans meeting. While in Hampton the visiting veterans will be quartered at the Augusta Hotel, arrangements having been made to accommodate the visitors on Tuesday night.

MISS TENNIS A GRADUATE.

Hampton Young Woman Carries Off Honors at Virginia College.

Miss Beattie Louise Tennis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tennis, who reside in Melrose avenue, was graduated with the degree of A. B., from the Virginia Christian College in Lynchburg, Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Tennis attended the exercises and with their daughter returned to Hampton yesterday.

The Lynchburg News of Friday, in commenting upon the commencement exercises, says of Miss Tennis:

"Miss Louise Tennis opened the program proper by an exceptionally well written and admirably delivered production, her theme being 'Hebraism and Hellenism.' Miss Tennis detailed the characteristics of these two wonderful world forces, showing the mission of Hebraism to hold the world bound fast to its spiritual center, while Hellenism, less intense, less introspective, lead to the perfection of the artistic sense until beauty became the great informing idea of Greek civilization. At various times we see first Hebraism pre-eminent, then Hellenism. As a world force, our own age, said the speaker, more than any other, demands a union of these forces that shall both be intelligent and moral."

THREATENED CONDUCTOR HAD HIS HEAD HAMMERED

Conductor E. H. Jones Didn't Fear William Holmes' Black Jack and Now William is Sorry.

Because William Holmes, colored, attempted to "carve up" Conductor E. H. Jones on a trolley car yesterday afternoon, Dr. Harry D. Howe found it necessary to take six stitches in closing wounds made on Holmes' head by the street car man. Conductor Jones defended himself with his blackjack and Holmes has several bad cuts on the head.

A warrant was issued for Holmes by Magistrate Frank H. Couch, charging him with raising a disturbance on the street car and with carrying concealed weapons. He will be given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Couch tomorrow evening.

WILL NOT STOP SALE OF SOFT DRINKS ON SUNDAY

Mayor Furness, of Phoebus, Holds That Such Places are Public Necessities.

According to the opinion of Mayor Louis P. Furness the sale of soft drinks is a public necessity and therefore the dispensers of non-intoxicant beverages will be allowed to continue business on Sunday in Phoebus. Four of the Phoebus merchants were in the police court yesterday morning upon warrants charging them with selling on Sunday.

Mayor Furness heard the evidence and then gave it as his opinion that in a town where there are no means of obtaining drinking water on the Sabbath it is necessary to have the soda fountains open. For this reason the mayor dismissed the cases, and with few exceptions his decision met with the hearty approval of those in the court room.
